

Video Slideshow Exchange Project

Sample Rubric for Assessing Video Slideshows

Title _____

Evaluator's name _____

	1 point	2 points	3 points
Visuals
Slides
Choice of slides	The choice of slides was inadequate to support the narration.	The choice of slides was adequate to support the narration, but did not enhance it.	The choice of slides effectively supported and enhanced the narration.
Titles and Credits	There are two or more mistakes in titles and credits, or serious legibility problems.	Most titles and credits are accurate, but there is a mistake or an occasional legibility problem.	All titles and credits are accurate and legible.
Narration
Delivery
Pronunciation	Frequent errors that may affect comprehension.	A few errors that may affect comprehension.	No errors that may affect comprehension.
Intonation	Frequent errors that may affect comprehension.	A few errors that may affect comprehension.	No errors that may affect comprehension.
Fluency	Frequent stops. Sounds as if reading.	Hesitations. At times sounds as if reading	No hesitations. Fluent.
Content
Logical organization	The order of ideas is difficult to understand.	The order of ideas can be followed although there are a few inappropriate transitions.	The order of ideas is smooth and easy to understand.
Supporting information appropriateness	The information provided does not support the points the narrator tries to make.	The information provided at times does not support the points the narrator tries to make.	The information provided fully supports the points the narrator tries to make.
Grammatical accuracy	Frequent errors that may affect comprehension.	A few errors that may affect comprehension.	No errors that may affect comprehension.
Vocabulary	Many examples of inappropriate or repetitious vocabulary.	A few examples of inappropriate or repetitious vocabulary.	Appropriate and varied vocabulary.
Length of exposition	The treatment of the topic is too cursory or excessively long-winded.	The treatment of the topic is just a little shorter or longer than it should be.	The treatment of the topic is the right length.
			Score: /30